

8:30 AM	2012 Stoa University: Opening Session
	Track 1	Track 2	Track 3
	Parent Track	Club Leader/Coach	Tournament Leader/Staff
9 00 AM	Stoa Culture - Empowering parents to equip their children with skills to be culture changers with a Christian worldview (with Scott York)	Developing Parent Leadership - Transforming parents into active and visionary leaders (with Elise Pope)	How to Run a Tournament - Learn ways to make a tournament happen in your home town. (with Laura Yeates)
10:00 AM	A Parent's Role: Part I - Imparting the vision for the way communication skills impact your childrne's futures and their world (with Joanne Quan)	Stoa Culture - Empowering parents to equip their children with skills to be culture changers with a Christian worldview (with Scott York)	Recruiting and Training Community Judges - Learn how to bring in community judges and understand the benefits it brings to our students and to them (with Diana Wolfson)
11:00 AM	A Parent's Role: Part II - Discussing the mechanics of effectively incorporating speech and debate skills in your family and your school (with Joanne Quan)	Club Organization - Learn from a panel of club leaders how they run successful clubs with different paradigms (with Diana Wolfson)	Stoa Culture - Empowering parents to equip their children with skills to be culture changers with a Christian worldview (with Scott York)
NOON	Lunch Break
1:00 PM	Why You Should Run a Tournament - Learn how holding local tournaments benefits your students, your family, your club, and your community. (with Elise Pope)	Coaching Wild Cards - The IE Committee introduces the 2012 - 2013 Wild Card events (with Charlotte Rehn)	Pilot Programs and Projects - Stoa committee members explain Stoa pilot programs and project processes (with Joanne Quan)
2:00 PM	A Father's Impact - Why fathers fill a vital role in the world of homeschool speech and debate (with Danny Eldridge)	IE Committee Roundtable - Informal round table discussion about Stoa speech events (with the Stoa IE Committee members)	Going Electronic - Learn what this means in Stoa, and how electronics are being incorporated in tournaments, events, and club/student preparation. (with Diana Wolfson)
3:00 PM	Getting the Most Out of Your Stoa Experience - How active participation increases the return on your investment exponentially (with Laura Yeates)	Debate Committee Roundtable - Informal round table discussion about Stoa debate events (with the Stoa Debate Committee)	Tab Pitfalls - Hear from the experts what to incorporate and what to avoid in your tournament tabulation processes. (with Van Schalin)
4:00 PM	General Session: The State of Stoa with Scott York, President		